

Start Times (30 min)	Monday	Notes	Tuesday	Notes	Wednesday	Notes	Thursday	Notes	Friday	Notes
1	Introduction/Ice Breakers	Ice Breaker: Have you played Magic before? Players and staff will get to know one	Ice Breaker	What do you find challenging about Magic? Why do you love the game?	Ice Breaker	Do you feel like you are a gracious loser? How do you take losing?	Ice Breaker	What do you still struggle with as a player? How do you think you can improve?	Magic Puzzle	Similar in the way a Chess player studies Chess Puzzles to get better, we will offer a daily
1:30	MTG Overview	Staff will go over what makes this game so much fun, and what we will be doing over	Magic Puzzle	Similar in the way a Chess player studies Chess Puzzles to get better, we will offer a daily	Magic Puzzle	Similar in the way a Chess player studies Chess Puzzles to get better, we will offer a daily	Playing Sushi Go Roll Party	Sushi Go Roll is a fun card game that teaches the "draft" mechanics necessary to play the limited format of Magic The Gathering	Tournament Rules and how to be kind in victory and gracious in defeat	We will be going over what to expect in a tournament of Magic The Gathering. The
2	Forming your Play Test Team	A play-test team is a group of Magic Players	The Mana Curve: What it Matters	The mana curve is the probability and statistics of	Strategy Session: How to Mulligan	One of the most tricky parts of the game, when to			Strategy Session: How to Keep Cool in a	Tournaments can make even the pros nervous. We'll
2:30	Playing MTG 1 on 1	The traditional way of playing Magic: The Gathering, one player versus one	Playing MTG: 2 on 2	Also called two headed giant. This style of play pits teams of 2 against one another, for a fun, challenging and	Playing MTG: Free For All	Also called "Kitchen Table Magic" our play test teams will be playing in a 4 way free-for all			MTG Sealed Tournament	Sealed is another limited format, in which players are given 6 booster packs to build 1 deck from. Students will; compete in a tournament with prizes at the end for the victors! Note
3							Strategy Session: How to Draft/Play Limited Magic	Limited Magic also known as "drafting" is a tough
3:30	Introduction to Machiavelli	Machiavelli was the					Playing MTG Mock Draft	Students will have their first Magic draft, and play the limited format of Magic with their play-test groups
4	Playing Hero Realms	Hero Realms is a trading card game with intensive math and strategic
4:30			Introduction to Sun Tzu	The wisdom of Sun Tzu and his book The Art of War is	Ettiquite: How not to be a "Salty" Magic Player	Salty is a gamer term for being rude or mean after				